Legislative Conference By Representatives of Schools Is Held Here

SUPT. W. A. SMITH (left) of the Washington C. H. schools introduces Walter B. Bliss executive secretary of the OEA, to the district school legislative conference in the high school auditorium here Wednesday.

Representatives from schools in five counties in the fifth-sixth state senatorial district discussed a nine-point program when the legislative conference was held in the high school auditorium here Wednesday afternoon.

The more than 35 school leaders at the conference agreed to carry this program back to their associates for further discussion. They also agreed that supplementary proposals may be suggested by the representatives before the Ohio Education Association convention is held Nov. 21-23 in Columbus.

One of the highlights was the selection of Vaughn Lewis, superintendent of the Greene County schools, as chairman of a group that will confer with candidates for the state senate—Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs, the incumbent, and Reed M. Winegardner, his Democratic opponent.

According to the plan adopted at the meeting, the chairman is to select his own committee, but indications were that it would be made up of county chairmen.

Supt. W. A. Smith of the Washington C. H. Schools, presided at the meeting.

Walton B. Bliss, executive secretary of the Ohio Education Association, was the principal speaker at the conference.

He reviewed the tentative program of the OEA legislative committee and outlined the progress made by the Ohio School Survey Committee. He also discussed plans for conferences with all candidates for the state's General Assembly.

AMONG THE tentative proposals discussed by Bliss were:

(1) Since the Foundation law requires each district to levy 10 mills in order to qualify for additional aid, such millage, up to and including 10 mills, once voted should extend for an indefinite period.

(2) If the 10-mill requirement for operating costs remains a qualifying factor for additional aid, a law should be considered that would prevent the county auditor from reducing the voted and mandated operating millage below 10-mills during the year of general reappraisal. This would permit the district to vote adequate millage the following year to meet qualifications.

(3) If any free millage exists within the 10-mill limitation in a township tax rate, it should be assigned to schools if needed.

(4) Require all principals, executive heads and guidance counselors to have special certificates. (Executive heads in this reference would be district superintendents in the Fayette county school system.)

(5) Permit boards of education to employ executive heads on five year contracts or period up to that.

(6) Permit photostatic copies of teachers' certificates to be filed in the superintendent's office instead of the original.

(7) Empower county boards of education to employ survey personnel to determine building and redistricting needs.

(8) Permit county boards of education to buy equipment for a county superintendent's office. (At present county commissioners furnish the equipment.)

(9) Provide permissive legislation for establishing junior colleges with the stipulation that support must come from a special levy.

Hunter's Wife Bags Partridge

DETROIT LAKES, Minn. (AP)—Lyle Davis of Detroit stalked the brush and woods yesterday in a vain hunt for partridges.

Back home, he found one, cooked and ready for him on the dinner table. The partridge had flown through a window of the Davis home in the mired's absence. Mrs. Davis did the rest.

Negroes To Carry Hillsboro School Fuss To High Courts

COLUMBUS (AP)—Stalled by a district judge's ruling yesterday, Negro leaders planned today to carry their fight for immediate school integration in Hillsboro all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

U. S. Judge John H. Druffel declined to act at present on a request he stop "enforced segregation" in Hillsboro schools. He said he turned down an injunction bid because any decision might prove contrary to a policy yet to be determined by the Supreme Court.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People is making the Hillsboro case an opening move in its fight for immediate admittance of Negroes to previously all-white schools.

John L. Francis, president of the Ohio conference of NAACP branches, said last night he was "shocked" at Druffel's ruling and would appeal "to the Supreme Court if necessary."

NAACP lawyer Russell Carter said he would file an appeal to the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati today.

Carter said Druffel shouldn't have to wait for the Supreme Court. It has "nothing to do with the Hillsboro case except on the general principle that segregation is illegal," he said.

Druffel continued the Hillsboro case until two weeks after the Supreme Court makes its final entry because, he said, the high tribunal is "setting the pace" for lower courts.

Hillsboro officials say segregation doesn't exist in their south-

Early Lead Is Taken by Indians In Second Game of World Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, irked at stubbing their collective toe in the opening contest, took a 1-0 lead over the New York Giants here this afternoon in the second game of the 1954 World Series.

The Indians broke the ice before many fans knew the game was underway.

Al Smith, Tribe left fielder, the first batsman, took a firm hold of the first ball pitched and lofted it into the right field bleachers to give the Indians their 1-0 lead.

The Giants went into the game even money to defeat Cleveland for baseball's richest prize by virtue of winning yesterday's 1-inning opening game 5-2.

Nominated for pitching duty today were Early Wynn, the Indian righthander with a 23-11 record, and young Johnny Antonelli, Giant southpaw who won 21 and lost 7 this year.

Nixon Accused Of Dishonesty

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon, carrying the bulk of the load in campaigning for Republican candidates, today came in for renewed criticism from Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democratic National Committee, who accused him of "playing a dishonest game of words to give a false impression."

A spokesman said Mitchell was standing behind his statement, although it was disclosed that the Associated Press had misquoted Nixon in reporting the speech which touched off this particular exchange with Mitchell.

The AP had quoted Nixon as saying in a Sept. 18 speech at Huron, S. D., that the Eisenhower administration has "kicked the Communists out of government not by the hundreds, but by the thousands."

A play-back yesterday of a recording of the speech made by a Huron radio station showed that Nixon had said, "We're kicking the Communists and fellow travelers and security risks out of the government, not by the hundreds but by the thousands."

IT WAS ON THE basis of the AP account that Mitchell on Sunday accused Nixon of "an outright falsehood." Nixon said later Mitchell was "shooting from the hip before he gets the facts."

Mitchell's reply: "When Mr. Nixon conglomerates Communists, fellow travelers and security risks in one group, he is playing a dishonest game of words to give a false impression. It is as though a police chief boasted about capturing 'thousands of murderers, kidnapers and parking violators,' when his records show only one suspected murderer, one suspected kidnaper and 2,000 parking violators."

But it said "it has not been by accident that Governor Lausche in four elections has received so many thousands of Republican votes as well as others," and declared "one of our best reasons for supporting him" is that we have seen him work constructively and harmoniously with the Republican majority in the Ohio Legislature for the good of everybody.

The editorial said the Republican candidate for governor, James A. Rhodes, "has hurled a great many charges without substantiating them as fully as fair minded persons expect." It said "he has not hesitated to employ formal reports by the state auditor's office as texts strictly for campaign ammunition. We do not view him as of the stature of Governor Lausche."

After Negroes had been enrolled by Webster and Washington schools, the school board said classes were becoming overcrowded and rezoned the city's school districts. Now 11 Negroes attend previously all-white classes. The rest were channeled back to the Lincoln school.

The board says the rezoning was along residential lines. The NAACP says it was along racial lines but yesterday advised Negroes to abide by it.

The school board testified they plan to integrate all school pupils when new buildings are completed within two and a half years.

With the visible water supply gone above the dam across Paint Creek at the pumping station, the Ohio Water Service Co. is now drawing on the auxiliary station east of Elm Street and preparing to tie in the new well located south of Belle Aire subdivision south of West Elm Street within a short time.

Car, Hit by Truck, Is Smashed

A CAR DRIVEN BY CLIFFORD YOUNG was smashed when hit by an Armbrust truck loaded with sand at the intersection of Circleville and Bogus roads Friday morning. Young was hospitalized. (Record-Herald photo)

Clifford Young, 72, who has a green house on High Street, was injured seriously in a traffic accident on the Circleville Road at the intersection of the Bogus Road at 7:30 A. M. Thursday.

Suffering from cuts and bruises about the head and arms and from fractured ribs, he was taken in the Kirkpatrick Ambulance to Memorial Hospital for treatment.

The accident occurred when an Armbrust mixing plant truck, loaded with sand and headed westward, crashed into Young's car when he drove northward from the Bogus

Road into the path of the truck, it was stated by Sheriff Orland Hayes.

Both vehicles were overturned at the roadside and the load of sand spilled out over the highway.

The truck was driven by Thomas Funk, 36, city, who was painfully injured when his truck overturned. The truck was damaged considerably.

Young's car was badly wrecked, the entire right side being caved in. The impact of the truck on the right side, instead of the left side of the car probably saved his life.

Sheriff Orland Hayes investigated the wreck and said that a charge of failing to yield the right of way would be filed against Young.

New Indochinese Aid Plan Readied

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and France evidently will put into immediate action a new $1 billion program to bolster Indochina against communism.

Agreement on the program was announced last night in a communique issued after three days' talks between top French and American officials.

The communique gave only general statements of determination "to support the complete independence of Cambodia, Laos and Viet Nam."

But it marked the first time since the shooting war ended on July 21 that the United States and France have actually had a common action program. In this sense it probably means a new era of cooperation in the struggle to save Indochina.

Aside from the communique, it was learned from official sources that the main provisions of the program are:

1. FRANCE'S 10-division force in Viet Nam will be systematically reduced. The aim is to get all French forces out of Viet Nam by March 1956, about four months prior to elections on whether the whole of Viet Nam will go Communist.

2. The withdrawal will be geared to a relatively slow schedule so that no power vacuum will be created. Time will be permitted for the training of larger native forces which eventually will assume responsibility for the country's security. Native forces will be trained also in Laos and Cambodia.

3. Large quantities of military equipment, supplied by the United States to the French for fighting the Communists in Indochina will be turned over to the natives.

20 Ohio Convicts Booked For Move

COLUMBUS (AP)—Overcrowded conditions at Ohio Penitentiary will be relieved by transfer of 200 inmates to Marion Training School by mid-October.

The penitentiary, built to house 2,500 inmates, now has a population of about 5,000.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, director of the Ohio Division of Hygiene and Corrections, said the training school will be a branch of the penitentiary until the school is completed late next year or early 1956.

Until yesterday, the school housed about 80 inmates of Mansfield Reformatory.

Nation's Weather Varying Widely

CHICAGO (AP)—There was a variety of weather across the nation today.

It was cool, with snow in the Rocky Mountain regions; cool in northern Midwest areas; hot and humid in the Southwest, and around normal in most other parts of the country.

Snow was reported from Northern Montana as far south as Laramie, Wyo., which reported two inches on the ground. Temperatures were below freezing in some places. Colder Canadian air continued to move southward across the plains. Showers and thunderstorms were reported from the western Great Lakes southward into Texas.

Soviet Said Ready To Detail Stand On Atomic Proposals

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—

Reports spread today that Andrei Vishinsky might unveil new Soviet atomic proposals to the U. N. General Assembly this afternoon. Observers predicted they would boil down to another demand for a ban on nuclear weapons.

The chief Russian delegate was scheduled to take the assembly floor shortly after the opening of today's plenary session to give a review of Soviet policy as his contribution to the 60-nation group's opening general debate.

Vishinsky's speech, on which he had been working in seclusion all week, was expected to set forth the Soviet bloc's line on the American atom-for-peace proposals and other vital East-West issues.

One Latin American delegate said he had reliable word that the usually fiery Soviet spokesman would couch his remarks in conciliatory vein in an effort to show Russia is treating the atomic question with an open mind.

MOST MEMBERS felt, however, that Vishinsky would reiterate his government's refusal to go along with the Eisenhower-Dulles atomic plan unless it tied in a declaration outlawing nuclear weapons.

This stand was made clear in the recent publication of previously secret notes the United States and Russia exchanged on President Eisenhower's original proposal to the U. N. last December for a peaceful atomic pool. Secretary of State Dulles rejected the Soviet condition as a ruse to disarm the free nations while Russia continued to bolster her arsenal.

Vishinsky himself gave a hint of the tack he might take when he demanded last week that the U. N. Security Council, in which Russia has veto power, have authority over any international atomic agency. The U. S. has shown no willingness to place the proposed agency under such control.

Some quarters, feeling Vishinsky timed his speech to coincide with the nine-power London conference on German rearmament, predicted he might indicate Russian willingness to accept reunification of the former Reich. But any reunification offer was expected to follow closely the lines the Soviets have laid down in the past, with demands for such advantages to the Communist East German regime that the West would shun.

There also was speculation Vishinsky might reiterate Russia's call for an all-European security system as an offset to NATO.

Vishinsky also was expected to register a sharp protest against what the Soviets call interference with shipping in the Formosan Straits.

Belgian Plan For Controls Gets Approval

Optimism Runs High At London Conference Of 9 Western Powers

LONDON (AP)—A German spokesman says the nine-power conference on freeing and rearming Germany has approved a compromise plan for establishing and controlling a European arms pool.

The plan, put forward by Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, would divide responsibility for safeguards between a new seven-nation European alliance and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Previously, France had insisted on the seven-nation authority exercising controls while West Germany held out for NATO supervision.

The German spokesman said the Spaak compromise met with the approval of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Premier Pierre Mendès France and was also acceptable to the other delegations. He described the Spaak memorandum put before the conference today as "excellent."

The German announcement came shortly before the nine foreign ministers reassembled for their afternoon session.

AN AIR OF optimism is being felt over chances of an agreement to put German divisions in the line against Communist aggression.

Hopes soared as a result of the pledge by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden yesterday that British troops and air forces will be kept on the European mainland indefinitely.

A good welcome was also given U. S. Secretary of State Dulles' promise that he would urge President Eisenhower to renew the U. S. pledge to maintain troops in Europe if a rearmament Germany was brought into the Atlantic alliance.

The other eight foreign ministers apparently think chances of agreement are so good that they are practically ignoring Dulles' warning that failure might result in withdrawal of the American forces from Europe.

Dulles, Eden, Adenauer and Mendès France arranged to get together late today to talk over the issue of granting West Germany complete sovereignty.

Successful conclusion of these and the companion talks on German rearmament is expected to bring these results:

1. The United States, Britain and France will announce their intention to end the occupation of West Germany, giving the Bonn republic virtually full control over both external and internal affairs.

2. THE GERMANS then will issue a declaration offering to join a proposed new seven-nation European alliance and the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

3. Under a reported compromise plan being worked out, the European alliance will organize controls to be placed on the arms and armaments of member nations, Britain, France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

4. The administration of these controls, primarily designed to prevent any runaway German rearmament, would be in the hands of NATO.

Ohioan Sentenced To 5-Year Term

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Edward Newman, 47, a Warren, Ohio, advertising solicitor, was convicted in U. S. District Court here yesterday on a charge of violating the Mann Act and sentenced by Judge MacSwain to five years in prison.

Newman's 16-year-old stepdaughter testified he had immoral relations with her in their apartment here. Newman claimed he and the girl maintained a father and daughter relationship in stays in Warren and Bridgeport. The girl testified they had registered in hotels as man and wife.

Cycle Passenger Killed By Auto

CINCINNATI (AP)—Theodore Means Jr., 11, was killed by an automobile last night as he rode in a luggage carrier on a bicycle.

Ray Warth, 12, who was operating the bicycle, was injured. Harry J. Duttie, 54, of Dayton, Ky., driver of the automobile, was charged with manslaughter, reckless driving and driving while drunk.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

It probably would never happen again, and I marvel how it happened the one time. It was seen by Office Stookley, watch repairman and jeweler.

A man was driving a new truck south on Fayette Street, towing a second truck.

When opposite the Record-Herald building, the towed truck became detached from the one pulling it, but the driver did not know it until his attention was called to it by a man yelling and pointing as he was crossing the East Street intersection.

The "wild" truck was going down grade so it continued on its way, straight as an arrow, following the truck which had been towing it.

The driver kept a short distance ahead of the truck which was without anyone to operate it, until he reached the bridge over Paint Creek. There he stopped his truck and the other truck, moving slowly, bumped into it.

The driver again fastened the rear truck to the one he was driving and went on his way, apparently not realizing that such a thing probably would not happen again once in a million times.

The loose truck had crossed several sets of railroad tracks, but kept on its course without swerving.

Boosters Club To Give Trophy

Night for Meetings
Back to Wednesday

The next meeting of the Boosters Club will be held on Wednesday evening, that day on which they have been held ever since the club was formed more than two years ago.

The last meeting was held on Monday night, a change from the previous regular meeting day—but that started an argument that was settled only with the shift back to the old meeting day of Wednesday.

The hour and the place are to be the same as before, too—7:30 P. M. at the Cherry Hotel. With that question disposed of, the Boosters adopted a plan for presenting a trophy to the "Player of the Week" for each home game the rest of the season.

There was a possibility that the trophy might be given after each away-from-home game, too, but it was unlikely.

The spectators at the games will make the selections of the "Player of the Week" right after each game according to the plan worked out by the Boosters Club.

A BLANK FORM for voting for the "Player of the Week" is to be printed in the programs for each game. After the game, the blank is filled out with the spectator's choice for the "Player of the Week" and dropped in a ballot box that the club will have at the exits from the stadium and the field.

Only the votes on the blank ballots taken from the program will be counted, the club has ruled.

The problem of what to do with the junior school Lion Cubs that have come out for football is still worrying Athletic Director Bob Shaw and the two coaches, Dan Leggett and Bill McCullough.

So, the Boosters Club made an appeal for its members to go down to the public park on Millikan Avenue, where the Cubs practice every afternoon after school, and lend a hand to the coaches.

Volunteers can get an assignment from either President Paul Cummings or Secretary Mac Dews Jr.

Home Demonstration Club Projects Set

Nearly 70 members of Fayette County Home Demonstration Clubs gathered Wednesday afternoon in the Farm Bureau auditorium to receive instruction on four different crafts to be projects for the Home Demonstration Clubs in the county this year.

The meeting was in charge of Miss Louise Ritter, chairman of the Alumnae Council. Each of the instruction classes was in charge of group leaders: huck weaving by Mrs. Walter Carman and Mrs. Willard McLean; basketry by Mrs. Maryon Mark and Miss Arbana Roush; textile painting by Mrs. Worley Melvin; metal work by Mrs. Willard Bonham and Mrs. Joe Bonham.

The members attending each group will take the information back to their own clubs where they will be the leaders for the year in that particular project. There are 22 Home Demonstration Clubs in the county.

Fayette County is still without a home demonstration agent ever since Mrs. Wayne Woodyard resigned to return to the Washington C. H. High School faculty as head of the home economics department. Her successor will have to be appointed through the Extension Service, of which the home demonstration program is a part.

Turnpike Talk For Symposium

Facts and Figures
By Frank Baker

The currently controversial topic of turnpikes was discussed from a non-controversial angle at Wednesday night's meeting of the Symposium chapter here following the customary dinner.

Frank Baker, who is in the highway construction business as G. D. Baker & Son, gave some of the historical background of the Pennsylvania turnpike and outlined the changes in rules and regulations that had been made through the years since it was opened.

He also quoted figures in painting the financial picture.

From the Pennsylvania turnpike, Baker turned to his discussion of the Ohio turnpike, which is now under construction as an extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike.

It was an informal talk that he gave and when he finished, questions were put to him concerning the dollars and cents outlook; the figures he quoted showed Ohio was building a million-dollar-a-mile highway across the northern part of the state.

Of the proposed turnpike that would cross the state from north to south, Baker said the future was uncertain. However, he gave the impression that it would be constructed eventually.

He was introduced by Harris Willis with a combination of character and biographical sketch, decidedly on the lighter side.

Guests for the evening were Ed Vollette, Delta Upsilon from Miami University, and Elmer Reed, Phi Gamma Delta from Washington and Jefferson University.

Hosts for the affair were V. F. Crawford, Hugh Sollars and M. Grove Davis.

Corn Field Day Here To Have Specialists

Virgil Overhold, extension agriculture engineer of Ohio State University, will discuss costs and opportunities for irrigation and drainage and the relationship between rainfall and fertilizer application.

E. P. Reed, extension agronomist of Ohio State University, will discuss fall crops for diverted acres, forage emergency measures when seedlings fail and fertilizer practices.

H. H. Denton and Kirk Tractor Sales will have demonstrations on "Contending with Corn Stalks in Seedbed Preparation for Wheat."

The affair is open to anyone in Fayette County. There will be opportunities for visiting with the Extension Specialists during the afternoon and discussing specific agronomy problems with them.

The Field Day is sponsored by the Fayette County Seed Corn Producers Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and the Fayette County Agronomy Committee.

Resolution Adopted By Concord Council

Edwin Buck told the Concord Township Farm Bureau Council that the County School Advisory Committee was "favorably impressed" with the new Tecumseh and Northeastern high schools in Clark County after they were visited.

He made his report at the meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ottie Smith following a pot-luck supper.

Family information cards were filled out and four resolutions were adopted. (1) Better rural telephone service (fewer telephones on party lines, specifically); (2) opposition to universal military training; (3) explanation of increased industrial insurance (state) certain to farm operations and (4) remove all obsolete laws from the books.

Guests for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Schilling and their daughters and Miss Carol Sue Reese.

Indians Take Lead

ental variety for which the Polo Grounds is notorious. No shorter homerun can be hit in any ball park than this 270-foot specimen that a fan muffed only inches above the barrier. But it also is a fact that the slugging Indians had the same target to shoot at all afternoon.

Of deep satisfaction to Durocher's club was the fact that it stayed in there and finally defeated Cleveland's best.

Also of glad tidings to the winners was the manner in which their relief star, the veteran Marv Grissom, walked in there to stop the Tribe in its tracks after their starter, Sal Maglie, suddenly felt his 37 years in the eighth inning and his reliever, Don Liddle, had been clouted for one of the longest and most sensational putouts ever seen anywhere.

And last, but far from least, it was their wonder boy and official team electrician, Willie Mays, who saved the game with his truly amazing over-shoulder catch of Vic Wertz towering 450-foot smash to the centerfield wall with two Indians on base and none out in the eighth.

The boy from Alabama didn't get a hit off Lemon's sinking stuff, but he gave notice that he will be a telling factor all the way with that catch and his steal of second after Lemon had walked him for the second time with one out in the 10th. The steal caused the Indian ace to pass Hank Thompson purposely to set up a possible double play, and that gave Durocher the opportunity to insert the lefty swinging Rhodes for slumping Monte Irvin.

The best Irvin had been able to do in four tries was lay down a sacrifice bunt, and more than a little complaint had been heard in the press section that Leo had Rhodes sitting on his hands when things looked desperate.

The record crowd of 52,751 gave Dusty a nice ovation, and the next thing anyone knew that lazy little fly was being boosted along by the wind toward its destiny.

The ironic part of it was that the same wind, blowing with some velocity across the field from left to right, almost surely robbed Jim Hegan, Cleveland's catcher, of a bases-loaded home run off Grissom in the eighth inning, and also blew one back off Al Dark's bat that would have given the Giants a 3-2 win in the ninth. Both knocks clearly were headed for the seats when they started out.

Some Union Welfare Funds Need Investigation

It has come to light that there has been plenty of reason for Union men in certain unions in the country to have reason to be glad that an investigation is under way to show up how some of the Union officers have been making the union's welfare funds a good thing for themselves.

In such cases it is no wonder that these Union officers bitterly have opposed the Taft-Hartley law which gave the members of Unions the right to inquire into the spending of such funds.

No one can generalize from one or two cases, but the record of a New York State investigation into the "Welfare Fund" set up by Local 923, CIO, Bar and Grill Employees employed in small hamburger stands and luncheonettes, cries aloud for corrective action.

This outfit obviously was run for the welfare of its officers. The president received $41,000 from the union treasury as compensation for his "services." The same officer also served as administrator of the union's welfare fund and told the investigators that "There's nothing to running a union today but handling the welfare fund."

Three unions were lucky enough to find men of great skill at this task of helping themselves to an extent that the salaries drawn by their officers exceeded the amount received by the union membership in benefits.

Free automobiles, cash gifts of several thousand dollars annually, expense accounts and special insurance benefits were dished out in grand style to these fortunate few.

One of these unions spent more than one-third of its income on overhead. To show how fair the fund managers were, this union set up an advisory board which met once a year to hear a report on welfare fund operations. The minutes of the annual meeting were typed in advance, and approved in advance everything in the report.

No wonder that the House Labor Committee of Congress is holding hearings to see how Congress can help honest working men and women protect themselves from some of the folks who have muscled and elbowed their way into dominant positions in some labor organizations.

A Lot of Work

During the recent 83rd Congress the nation's lawmakers introduced a total of 14,181 bills, of which 10,238 were House Bills, and 3,943 were Senate Bills. In addition, 716 Resolutions, 578 Joint Resolutions, and 273 Concurrent Resolutions were introduced in the House of Representatives; and 322 Resolutions, 184 Joint Resolutions, and 109 Concurrent Resolutions in the Senate. Each measure was, of course, printed, and at one time or another given consideration by a legislative committee.

Guns On Cops Incite Trouble

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Fabian, Britain's most celebrated detective since Sherlock Holmes, feels it might be a good idea if American cops quit carrying guns.

"The display of firearms is to be deprecated," mildly observed the ex-detective superintendent of Scotland Yard. "It incites the criminal to carry one, too."

"A firearm is not an equalizer; it is an antagonist."

In his 28-year service with "the Yard" Fabian solved a dozen murders, helped send nine men to the gallows, more than 80 to prison.

"I never carried a gun in my life," he said, "although twice I had to take guns away from men who seemed to want to use them on me. The only weapon I ever needed was my hands."

An expert in jujitsu, Fabian began his career as an ordinary constable. He still feels the best way to cut down crime is to put more cops out on beats, swinging a nightstick.

"But I don't go along with this gun-carrying," he said. "And it's not because I'm soft either."

"I'm not vicious, but I do think the pendulum has swung too far the wrong way in our treatment of criminals. We pamper both young delinquents and hardened criminals too much."

Fabian believes Britain made a mistake in doing away with the cat o' nine tails in 1948. He is convinced that 10 lashes on a criminal's back with "the cat," or 20 strokes with birch switches on his bare bottom teaches him an unforgettable lesson.

"The physical punishment is not as bad as the degradation," he said. "When you birch a criminal, you treat him like a naughty schoolboy. He never lives down the shame of it, not even with his own class."

Since retiring from Scotland Yard in 1949, Fabian has turned out two best-selling books on his experiences, "Fabian of the Yard," and "London After Dark." He also writes a weekly column on crime for a British newspaper chain and recently completed 39 half-hour TV films, based on his own cases.

Fabian, now in his 50s, rarely employed a disguise himself. He knew thousands of British criminals by sight and wanted them to know him by sight, too. Some he helped reform. Many became—after business hours—his friends.

"If they wanted a helping hand I'd give it to them," he said.

In 1949 after Fabian risked his life to disarm a bomb planted by Irish extremists, 50 of London's leading crooks struck off a medal in his honor, and threw him a surprise party. Later he was summoned to Buckingham Palace and presented with the King's medal for gallantry.

Here are a few observations on crime by Britain's "detective of the century":

"I don't mind an honest-to-goodness crook myself. But there is too much glamorization of criminals. They don't look glamorous in a cell."

"It has been my experience that most killers do have gray eyes. People with brown eyes are more warm-hearted."

"Crime really doesn't pay. A thief doesn't get very much for what he steals; only about one-tenth of the wholesale value of the goods."

"Criminals who work alone are usually the most difficult to catch. It is generally easier to catch a murder than a robber."

"In detective work patience and attention to detail are everything."

"The most common mistake of criminals is that they go to the well too often."

"I'm a great believer in women as detectives. They are often better than men in solving the disguises of women criminals. It is hard for one woman to fool another woman."

"Women detectives are sometimes more easily discouraged than men, but they're better at shadowing suspects than men."

"Against a woman criminal they are relentless."

No The Solution For Red Problem

By George Sokolsky

Sarah O'Connell, in charge of membership promotion of "The Committee to Combat Communism, Inc." writes me suggesting that I support the idea of cutting off all relations with Soviet Russia. In her letter she says:

"You point out that it is the policy of the Soviet Universal State to isolate us and limit our political influence in Europe and Asia. Why is it not our policy to isolate the Soviet and limit its influence by cutting off all relations with it, so that Communism must turn back upon itself, wither and die? We find it unacceptable that this 'anti-communist' administration we elected now refuses to take this step, and continues to expand red prestige and provide more opportunities for Communism to feed upon the free world, spread out and isolate us."

I fear that Miss O'Connell has not recently looked at a map. Precisely how can the United States isolate the Soviet Universal State, a land mass that runs from the Elbe River in Central Europe to the Pacific Ocean, from the North Pole to the 17th parallel in Indochina? This land mass includes about 800,000,000 human beings and an enormous reservoir of untapped natural resources. While the Soviet Universal State prefers to make purchases of machinery and machine tools and similar heavy imports from western countries, it is not dependent upon such imports. It is close to self-sufficiency as to raw material and food products.

If ever its vast areas are connected by an adequate means of communications, there ought to be no area with an inadequate food supply. Unless the Soviet Universal State is destroyed by war or internal revolution, it is likely that in half a century, such a means of communication can be produced.

Precisely how does one isolate such an area? Isolate it from what? The United States, which needs to import raw materials and to export manufactured and agricultural goods, requires open lanes on the oceans to move its goods. The Soviet Universal State is not dependent on ocean lanes. The geography of the Soviet Universal State rather than its politics, determines its position. Czarist Russia failed to take full advantage of the potentialities of the territory Soviet Russia is conscious of geographic factors.

Let us take another idea from Miss O'Connell's letter: How would the United States limit the influence of Soviet Russia by cutting off relations with it? Would we lessen the Russian influence in any satellite country? In Red China, for instance? Would it make any difference to India, to France or Italy? What actually would be accomplished except perhaps the moral satisfaction of refusing associations with an unpleasant country?

Breaking off relations with a country could mean one of two things: Either the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of both countries are withdrawn and nothing more happens, or the two countries go to war. It that the program proposed?

The advantage of Miss O'Connell's program is not clear to me. In 1945, we might have turned against our then ally, Soviet Russia, as that ally turned on us. We might have done dozens of things because the United States was strong and Soviet Russia was weak. Today that is not the position. The United States is not ready to make war on Soviet Russia; all indications are the Soviet Russia is not ready to make war on the United States, but our strength and weakness seems to be about evenly balanced. That is the reason for all the nervousness, the political activities, the conferences, the press interviews, and all sorts of activities which keeps our Secretary of State hopping. Nobody really knows what to do, but the world wants peace.

Communism can only be fought by knowledge, by understanding and by a realistic view of the problems that face us. Communism cannot be fought successfully merely by loud articulation of anti-Communism, of sentimental anti-Communism. Enough misery has appeared in the world because of errors in judgment as to how to fight Communism. The Korean War was obviously not the way because we lost that one. Communism can be fought in the United States as a domestic matter, and even as to that, few judgments are based on a sufficient knowledge of the Communist movement. In each country the battle takes on different characteristics. Cutting off diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia at this moment will solve no problem.

Truck Companies Leaving Ohio

COLUMBUS (AP)—An Ohio Trucking Assn. official says trucking companies are moving out of the state to avoid "crippling retaliatory taxes" by other states in reprisal against Ohio's axle-mile tax.

Treasurer Jesse W. Sentle, of Toledo addressing the association's semi-annual meeting here yesterday, said 17 companies have moved out and others have licensed equipment elsewhere.

Association President C. E. Williams of Mansfield declared "two basic needs exist": Free access of every citizen to every corner of the nation without having to pay boundary tariffs; and adequate arteries of commerce, also without internal tariff barriers.

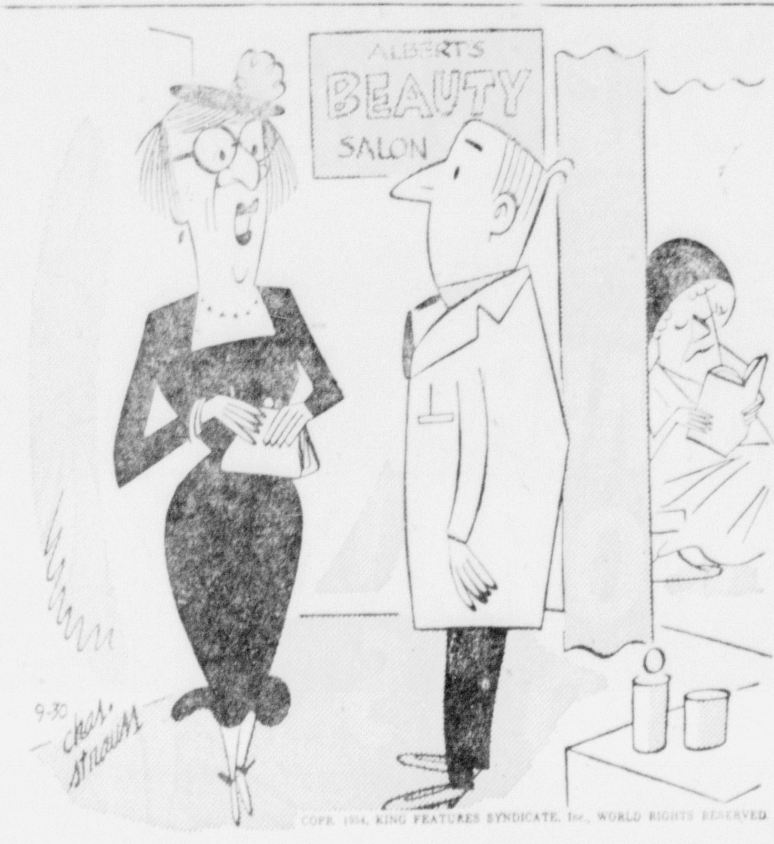

Williams claimed the Ohio axle-mile tax "has caused harm to everyone involved."

Women drivers were involved in about 12 percent of the U. S. auto accidents in 1953.

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Infection of the ear canal of even one ear is not uncommon and poses a double problem. Most of such conditions start from infections that are due to some form of skin disease affecting the skin lining the canal.

Common diseases that affect the oil glands of the skin are seborrheic dermatitis, psoriasis, eczema, or some form of allergic skin disease. One of these skin diseases may be the underlying cause of the ear canal infection. It has been found that people with these infections have some evidence of a skin disturbance somewhere on their bodies.

The infection that occurs secondarily to the skin disorder in the ear canal is most often due to germs that invade the weakened skin. Therefore, the doctor has two separate disorders to cure. He must first clear up the disease that has invaded the ear canal and then cure the skin condition that is the underlying cause of the difficulty.

With an ear canal infection, the canal that leads into the middle ear from the outside is red and painful, and the person complains of itching. There may be also some discharge of pus from the infected ear.

Recently hydrocortisone was used along with the antibiotic drug, neomycin, to treat infected ear canals. The discharge from the ear as well as the redness and itching subsided as soon as treatment was initiated. Immediate treatment by the physician should be sought when such symptoms are first noticed.

Cost Of U. S. Wars 'Fearful'

By Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON—Treasury figures emphasize the fearful costs of war to the American taxpayers, with the likelihood that they will rise instead of falling. Despite promised reductions, Moscow determines the size of our annual taxes and deficits, not Washington.

Since the founding of the nation in 1789, according to these staggering statistics, federal expenditures through June, 1953, totalled $888 billion. Military outlays, including aid to our allies, amounted to $506 billion or 57 per cent of the total. For financing routine government operations, as well as payments on behalf of health, educational, agricultural and highway-building activities, the obligation was $396 billion, or 34 per cent. Interest on the public debt, which represents the national mortgage, was $76 billion, or nine per cent.

Burke Chides New Tax Relief Bill

MARION (AP)—Sen. Thomas A. Burke (D-Ohio) last night accused the Eisenhower administration of "giving tax relief to the ordinary wage earner with an eyedropper, while it poured out tax benefits to the wealthy with a four-inch fire hose."

Burke said the $7 billion tax cut for which the administration takes credit "actually was given to the people by the last Democratic Congress." He said the administration cut taxes primarily for manufacturers under the "trickle-down" theory that tax cuts would stimulate business.

as Mussolini and the Tokyo war lords — the American people would be living in a virtual millennium.

Incidentally, the 57 per cent paid out for waging war from 1789 - 1953, inclusive, approximates the percentage devoted to the same grim purpose today. The current budget shows no improvement or prospects of any advance in this respect.

Another significant feature of this enlightening study is that the greatest part of this tragic bill has been incurred within the last 15 years, or since 1939. It is the price we have paid, in Woodrow Wilson's nonprophetic words "to make the world safe for democracy."

BURDEN — Federal expenditures from 1939 through June, 1953, came to $730 billion, or 82 per cent of the 1789-1953 total of the $888 billion. Military costs ate up $457 billion of this amount, or 63 per cent.

All other government outlays were $217 billion, or 30 per cent. Public debt charges were $55 billion or seven per cent.

The principal sources of federal revenue in these years have been the personal income and corporation taxes. Since adoption of the income tax amendment 40 years ago, they have collected $440 billion in government revenues, or more than two thirds of Uncle Sam's budget receipts since 1789.

And yet, this tremendous take, together with tariff levies and a long list of excise taxes, has not been enough to finance the high cost of living and fighting. We are about $270 billion "in the hole," which is the amount of the public debt. It came to only $42 billion in June, 1940, just before the start of the World War II defense program.

COLD WAR—Still another discouraging factor is present in this unhappy reckoning. It is inherent in the alarming increases in the costs of war and in safeguarding this national security.

After every other major conflict, there followed a long period of relative peace, balanced budgets and tax reductions. That occurred after the Wars of 1812-1814, 1861-1865 and 1917-1918.

Today, they approximate the same level that they did during the peak of the recent conflict. And, despite the "new look" in national defense, the debacles at Geneva and in Indochina indicate that they must go even higher, thanks to Molotov and Mao Tse-tung.

Girls, Your Table Settings Reflect Your Personality

By DOROTHY ROE Associated Press Women's Editor

The way you set the table is a key to your personality, outlook and way of life, says Helen Chamberlin of Seattle, a natural-born hostess who has made a career out of it.

"For instance," says this vibrant, sparkling westerner, "there's the traditional gal who clings to grandmother's damask and Haviland china, even though she has no maid to serve a formal dinner. There's the slipshod one who takes the course of least resistance, and slops the food on the table in chipped dime-store dishes. There's the fussy type who uses a real lace tablecloth and priceless crystal, and then worries throughout the meal for fear one of her guests is going to spill or break something. In each case the table setting is a dead giveaway."

Mrs. Chamberlin aired her views while in New York preparing a series of 32 table settings for the modern living exhibition being started by the nation's lumber dealers at the Kingsbridge Armory. And there's nothing timid, slipshod or traditional about Mrs. Chamberlin's table designs. She's as likely to use burlap as damask for table mats, she loves contemporary American dishes and unusual flower arrangements.

"There's a whole new trend in table settings, brought about by our new casual way of living," she explains. "Few people have servants any more, and this has made formal dinners impractical. The buffet and the semi-buffet have replaced the formal sit-down dinner, with a different set of china for each course, in most homes. And with it has come a new conception of using informal dishes, linen and silver."

Mrs. Chamberlin came upon her career somewhat by accident. A former newspaperwoman with a knack for entertaining, she was asked by an Oregon newspaper to design some table settings for a home show sponsored by the paper. Invitations from other organizations followed, and all of a sudden she found herself in business.

Now she spends a great part of each year traveling from home show to home show, in practically every state, accompanied by her unique table settings carefully packed in separate trunks, each complete down to the last teaspoon.

She represents only American manufacturers, and uses china, glassware, silver and linen made in the United States. Says she:

"Some of the best design in the world is being done right here in the good old U. S. A. For generations we've looked to Paris for fashions, to England for bone china, to Italy for venetian glass and so on, until we've developed a national inferiority complex. It's true that European skills have been going on for hundreds of years but in many cases American designers took up where the Europeans left off. And American china and other tableware is designed specifically for the American way of life."

Among the table settings Mrs. Chamberlin designed for the New York show is one entitled "Merry Christmas Morning," in which she uses a small Christmas tree with a green felt "skirt" glittering with sequins as a centerpiece for a round table set with a combination of white milk glass and ruby pressed glass.

A children's table has a yellow burlap cloth trimmed in rickrack, and there's a cloth of taffeta and stain for a wedding table. For a football buffet she uses a runner of rosy beige drapery fabric down the

Actor Says Work Rather Spotty

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actor Frankie Darro, arrested on a non-support charge, says film work for him has been spotty in recent years.

He was arrested yesterday on a warrant signed by his ex-wife, Betty Darro. She charged he has failed to support their 9-year-old daughter, Darlene.

Darro, released on $500 bond, remarked: "I keep telling her she can't get blood out of a rock."

middle of a long table, uses dinnerware all in tones of brown, puts corsages in college colors on top of each napkin instead of a flower decoration in the middle of the table. A big ceramic duck holds wine punch, a smaller duck is used for condiments.

"Your table should be as personal as your wardrobe," says Mrs. Chamberlin, "and your supply of china should be just as versatile."

I Lost 50 Lbs. While I Ate 3 Good Meals A Day Dress Size Changes From 46 to 16 With Rennel

"Believe me I am 100% sold on Rennel Concentrate and here is why," writes Mrs. Ralph Nettle, R.D. No. 1, Clinton, Ohio. "I weighed 222 lbs. and decided to try Rennel after reading about the wonderful results so many people have obtained from your product. In six months' time I was down to 172 lbs. Before starting with Rennel I wore a size 46 dress. Today I wear size 16. My secret is Rennel and I have never starved myself to lose this weight. I ate plenty of fruits and vegetables, and with good sense ate anything else you may name. Many friends and relatives have asked how I managed to lose this weight, and believe me I have recommended Rennel highly. I personally know eight other women that are now using Rennel since seeing the success that I have had with it. Rennel is wonderful."

The Nation Today

By ED CREAHER
For James Marlow
WASHINGTON (AP)—Memo to a man from Mars:

Sorry we missed seeing you yesterday. Normally we'd have heard you tapping on the office door, even though your tentacles don't make as much noise as human knuckles. But the television set was going full blast, you see. None of us wanted to miss the World Series opener.

The World Series—maybe we'd better tell you about that, since you're down here studying human behavior. The World Series is—well, call it a sort of nervous breakdown that we have at this time of year.

It's a serious ailment. It just about brings the United States to a standstill. People forget about politics, about world affairs. Nobody argues about Joe McCarthy. Joe McCarthy, we ought to explain, used to manage the New York Yankees. They took part in the World Series, too, in happier days.

Fortunately, perhaps, this temporary insanity of ours doesn't last long. It usually runs its course in a week or less. Then everybody goes back to work, except sometimes the manager of the losing team.

The World Series is a contest, or series of contests, between two baseball teams. Baseball is a children's game played with a ball, a bat and a set of bases. The rules say there must be four bases although some teams, such as Pittsburgh, seldom need more than one or two.

This year the contest is between the New York Giants of the National League and the Cleveland Indians of the American League. The Giants are not especially big men and the Indians are not really Indians. For that matter the Polo Grounds, where the series opened, is not noted for Polo.

The Giants are managed by Leo Durocher, Laraine Day, Tallulah Bankhead and a New York restaurant keeper named Toots Shor. The Indians are managed by Al Lopez and about half the population of Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

Now the basis of baseball—and remember, there are four bases—is a contest between the pitcher, who throws the ball, and the batters, who try to hit it.

If the batter does not hit the ball, he runs around the bases. Unless, that is, he is saving his strength for a television commercial after the game, in which case another player runs for him. The other player is known as a pinch-runner. We never have been able to figure out why.

If the batter does not hit the ball, he throws down his bat and glares at the umpire. Umpires are mostly old ball players with failing eyesight. Old umpires never die. They just lose their seeing eye dogs.

Ball players play ball because they love the sport, though sometimes for the sake of their families they accept token salaries. Some of these token salaries rank right along with the take-home pay of the president of the United States. This is only fair. We haven't had a president since Theodore Roosevelt who could hit a ball out of the infield.

Besides riches, ball players aspire to two things: getting elected to the baseball hall of fame, and marrying Marilyn Monroe.

Baseball is the great American game, but during the season millions of Americans can take it or leave it alone. Come series time, though, everybody's a fan—and an expert. People who normally would as soon kiss their mother-in-law as shell out $2 for a ticket are packed right in there around the TV screen screaming.

Why? You tell us, man from Mars. We're a warm-hearted, clever, childlike people. But we never claimed that we had sense.

'Flying Saucer' Just Two Boys

SAND SPRINGS, Okla. (AP)—The mystery of the midnight "flying saucers" that has drawn free admission crowds numbering as much as 600 persons has been solved.

Last night as expensive radio and television equipment was made ready to capture the strange sequence, patrolmen found two boys perched halfway up the cliff with flashlights. Some 500 persons were present at the scene two miles west of here.

The boys, identified by officers as Eugene Anderson, 19, and Jimmy Rose, 17, both of Tulsa, freely admitted the light was their invention. They said they first tried it last Wednesday and repeated it nightly.

White Tipped For Rail Post

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times says William White, former president of the New York Central Railroad, is slated to be elected president of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad Corp. and its parent, the Delaware & Hudson Co.

White lost out to Robert R. Young in a spectacular New York Central proxy fight last spring.

The Delaware & Hudson operates 793 miles of railroad in New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont. The line extends from the Canadian border at Rouses Point, N. Y., due south to Schenectady and Albany, thence southwestward to Binghamton and Wilkes Barre, Pa.

More Accidents As Age Mounts

Interesting Traffic Data Is Given

Despite the fact that young, inexperienced drivers are one of the State's traffic problems, a survey by the Ohio Department of Highway Safety shows that on a proportionate basis drivers 65 years old and over are involved in three times as many fatal accidents as motorists 16 and under.

The survey covers the period of Jan. 1 to March 31 and covers 27,799 traffic accidents reported to the Safety Responsibility Division of the Department. There were 49,884 drivers involved in the accidents.

A correlation of age and accident severity shows that certain age groups have more than their proportionate share of fatal accidents. In the age group of 65 years and over, 15 drivers per 1,000 were involved in fatal accidents; and from 55 to 64 years of age, 11 of every 1,000 drivers were involved in fatal accidents.

In the age group under 17 only five per thousand were involved in fatal mishaps. The all-ages ratio of fatal involvement was 8 drivers per thousand.

The survey shows that of the number of drivers in all accidents during the three-month period 702 were 16 years old and 48 were 15 and under. Drivers 65 years and up totaled 1,784.

A further breakdown of driver age shows: 1,445 were 65 to 74; 321 were 75 to 84; and 18 drivers were 85 and over.

Many of the teen-age drivers who have helped keep the accident rate down are holders of "Certificates of Proficiency" which are awarded those who successfully complete the driver education courses offered in approximately half of the high schools in Ohio. The Department believes that the accident rate would be cut considerably if all teen-agers were required to take the course prior to applying for a driver's license.

sea shells collected during the family's vacation.

Each child is given the opportunity to tell about the object which he has brought, thus giving him practice in speaking before groups and developing his word power through descriptions.

A sense of pride of ownership or of discovery is also encouraged in these young people by the project.

One of the rewards of being a parent is the confidence that our children have in us. This was aptly illustrated recently when Betty Scott brought a nut which had fallen out of a tree hitting her brother on the shoulder. She brought it to the "Interest Table," but no one could identify it.

Finally Bruce Core spoke up and said, "I'm sure my daddy would know what it is!"

This further illustrates how dependent our children are on us for their educational opportunities.

An opportunity for the community to provide a rich cultural experience for our children presents itself in the current membership drive for Community Concerts. The experience of seeing live artists perform masterful programs in our own auditorium is one that has lasting effects. It stands out in their memories far longer than any TV performance would. The chance of seeing and hearing "Madame Butterfly" presented in our own city by an outstanding cast may never come again. Such programs should be encouraged for our youth.

Young Dem Chiefs Schedule Parley

COLUMBUS (AP)—The next regular session of the Young Democratic Executive Committee will be held Oct. 23 at the Commodore Perry Hotel, Toledo.

Mrs. Nelson Lancione, president of the League of Young Democratic Clubs of Ohio, said plans would be made for the League's participation in the fall campaign.

Cooking School Here Next Week

Classes To Be Held Afternoon, Evening

Beginning Oct. 4 and continuing through Oct. 8, Albers Super Market will present a series of free cooking schools in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium in Washington C. H. Sessions will be conducted Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock and Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock by Katharine Stafford, internationally known home economist and lecturer.

During each session of the cooking school, Mrs. Stafford will introduce new recipes and new menus that will result in saving of time, energy and money for Washington C. H. housewives. Women attending the cooking school may feel free to discuss their food problems personally with this highly-informed home economist.

THESE WILL be no cut-and-dried teaching lessons; quite the contrary, every minute will be packed with help for the cook, whether she's living alone and liking it, or whether she's the mother of a grand big family. There'll be fun, too, because Mrs. Stafford has a guiding phrase, "Fun With Food," and you'll find her entertaining you as she goes along, telling you about economical dishes and full-course meals at low cost.

As if this weren't enough, there'll be prizes. Yes, fifteen bags of groceries every day, plus the foods cooked on the platform. On Friday there'll be a grand prize, a very special grand prize: A Holpoint Pushbutton Range on display at Denton's Goodyear Store, 839 Columbus Avenue.

September Gets Approval For Its 'Upturn'

Businessmen Study October To See If It Also Inches Upward

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—September has passed with fair marks its test of providing the start of a "normal seasonal upturn." Now businessmen are eyeing October to see if it will produce, in higher production, increased sales and more jobs, in the way that September tentatively points.

Hopes aren't too high — none seems to be expecting a real boom. But signs today are good that the seasonal upturn is under way and that this fall, unlike last year's final quarter, will see business working steadily and healthily toward its Christmas peak.

Steel, a basic industry, reports that orders are starting to come in now. Some mills say the orders are better than they had expected.

As a result production schedules are being stepped up. Bethlehem is increasing its production in the Buffalo area. Youngstown Sheet & Tube is resuming output at its Brier Hill works in the Youngstown district.

The steelmen are particularly cheerful because the new demand has come from outside the auto industry. They are expecting that big user of their products to come in, shortly with orders for the new models the car makers are putting onto the production lines.

Industrial ordering, in general, increased this month, according to most purchasing agents. This should be translated into increased output in October.

Machine tool makers report that a turn for the better in their industry is traceable in part to the new tax law which offers factory owners better depreciation terms on new tools.

Expectations of improved business in industry apparently has sparked some of the buying of industrial stocks in Wall Street.

The stock market managed to pull through September without the sharp break which so often occurs in that month. On the contrary, industrial stock averages have recovered their August losses and approached the end of the month at new highs for the year.

Railroad stocks haven't been as popular. The railways, in fact, have had poor earnings reports most of this year, many of them operating at a loss. But here, too, the turn may have come. Several roads report business was better in August and September and are hoping that the upturn will continue through the rest of the year.

Chemical companies, who found business slow earlier in the summer, report that the turn for them came in August, with September continuing the trend. October orders are reported good, and many are looking for a slow upturn through November at least.

Appliance makers are hoping for a good Christmas trade. Television set makers are talking hit about the demand for color sets, with production getting into stride by the end of the year. Demand for black and white sets has been better than many expected earlier.

Oil companies, with their big gasoline selling season on the wane, are talking now mostly about prospects for 1955. Brewster Jennings, president of Socomey-Vacuum, is out with a prediction. His company expects demand for its petroleum products to rise by 3½ per cent next year.

Many stockholders are hoping for good year-end special dividends in

Thespian Society Holds Initiation

A combination potluck supper and formal initiation of 14 new members was held by the Thespian Society Tuesday night at the home of Sally Reiff, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Reiff.

The Washington C. H. High School chapter of the Thespian Society is associated with the worldwide organization, an honorary society dedicated to the promotion of dramatics in secondary schools.

New members initiated last night were Portia Brownell, Fred Cahall, Walter Hays, Winston Hill, Jr., Janet Howard, Charles Litz, Connie Locke, Roger Mickle, Mickey Milstead, Jim Newland, Edna Peters, Sally Reiff, Nancy Schlue and Ann Taylor. All are seniors at WHS.

The group planned to go to the Hartman Theater in Columbus to see "The King and I," the Rodgers and Hart musical.

Thomas Mansell is faculty advisor for the group.

No Horse—Lady Godiva Banned

CSHING, Okla. (AP)—A Lady Godiva act—sans horses, sans costume—is now sans show at a carnival here.

Deputy Lee Stiles happened into the show at a crucial point.

He said the star stripper was "without a zipper," and her cast of lovelies had also peeled down to nothingness in depicting the ride of the legendary lady through Coventry. They too had forgotten their horses.

Despite pleas to use his imagination, the unbending deputy says the show must not go on, even if the lady gets a horse.

their Christmas stockings. Earnings of many companies have stayed fairly good this year. Prospects for better fall business — plus the big cut in federal taxes for some concerns—makes the dividend prospects bright.

Manager Issues Proclamation to Aid Handicapped

City Manager James F. Parkinson has issued the following proclamation on the occasion of the tenth national employ the physically handicapped week:

"Whereas, the first week in October has been designated by Presidential Proclamation as National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week, and

"Whereas, all citizens should be rightfully concerned with the problem of employment of the physically handicapped, and

"Whereas, it has been demonstrated that physically handicapped men and women are efficient and effective workers, and

"Whereas, the continued growth and prosperity of this community is dependent upon securing the right of every physically handicapped worker, who is qualified and willing, to earn his livelihood and make his contribution to the economic and social welfare of the community, and

"Whereas, there is a continuing need for public support and active participation in the furtherance of employment of the physically handicapped on the basis of their demonstrated abilities;

"Now, therefore, I, J. F. Parkinson, manager of the city of Washington C. H., hereby proclaim the week beginning October 3, 1954, as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week in Washington C. H.; and I urge the citizens of this community to work diligently with the Washington C. H. Committee on National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week and all other groups engaged in the promotion of the observance of this occasion."

Murder Plotter Is Killed Himself

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Syrian officials say a political plot to blow up former Premier Khalid El Adem backfired when the murder weapons—two hand grenades—exploded prematurely in the hired killer's pocket.

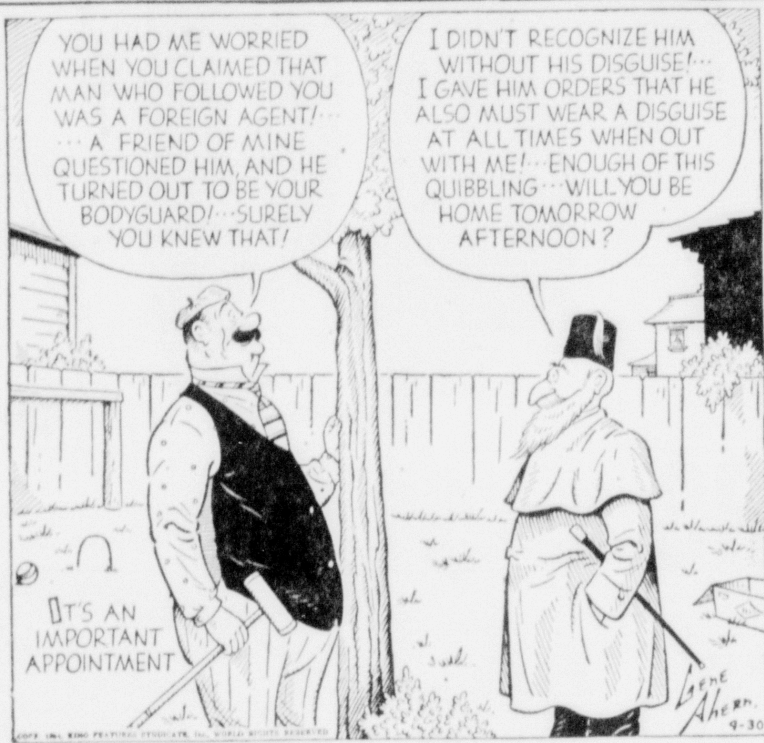

An official said the assassin, identified as Sharif Zerly, confessed before he died of his wounds that he had been hired by a National party supporter. Both the man who hired Zerly and his son were reported under arrest.

O'Neill And Blackburn Make Quick Tour In Fayette County Wednesday

IN THE ABOVE PHOTO Attorney General C. William O'Neill, Republican candidate for reelection and Leo Blackburn, Republican candidate for Congress in this sixth Ohio district, are seen talking with a group of farmers and others near the entrance of Washington Union Stockyards during their short stop in this city and county on their quick tour made in this congressional district this week. Those shown in the picture, left to right are Wash. Lough, Willard Pennell, James Newland, Leo Blackburn, Tom Faulconer (driver of the truck) and Mrs. Faulconer, Atty. Gen. O'Neill, Harold Smith, Frank Helsel and Lowell Fess, Republican candidate for state senator in this fifth-sixth district.

Near the close of their quick visit to all counties in the sixth Ohio congressional district the first three days of this week, Attorney General C. William O'Neill and Leo Blackburn, Republican candidate for Congress in this sixth district, made an hour and a half stop in Washington C. H. Wednesday and met many of their friends in this locality.

The two Republican candidates traveling with a sound truck came here near the close of their whirlwind tour of the nine counties in this district. They left here about 1:30 P. M. enroute to New Holland and other points to be visited on the last day of their trip, enroute to Columbus. Both made short get acquainted stops in a few street corners and a quick trip to the Union Stockyards where they talked with a number of farmers.

THE TWO candidates reached this city shortly after 12 o'clock and stopped at the Washington Coffee Shop for a quick lunch with a number of the Fayette County Committee including several members of the county Republican Women's Committee. While here they were joined by State Senator Lowell Fess, candidate for reelection in this district.

Following the lunch both O'Neill and Blackburn made brief talks to the committeemen present, warning of the need for a vigorous campaign to get out the vote in every precinct.

Both O'Neill and Blackburn avoided any formal speeches or meetings on this trip through the district, preferring to spend their time in meeting people on the streets in cities and villages.

BOTH OF THEM stated to the Record-Herald that they had received highly satisfactory receptions wherever they went. They stressed that the important thing in their campaigns was impressing the voters with the urgency of getting out the full Republican vote

Lima Gets Acting Chief of Police

LIMA (P)—Mayor William L. Ferguson has named Inspector Donald F. Miller as acting chief of police to replace Kermit Westbay.

At the same time, the mayor turned down Westbay's request to delay effective date of his resignation until the first of next year. Westbay, chief for eight years, wanted to use up accumulated sick leave. He resigned April 8.

Miller has been a member of the department 20 years. He will be eligible for a civil service examination for the chief's post.

Railroads, Trucks Join In Project

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—Two old combatants, the railroads and the inter-city trucking industry, face a happy future after their recent "marriage of convenience."

That marriage, says Eugene F. Ryan, came about with successful experiments in moving motor carrier trailers on rail cars.

The president of Rail-Trailer Co., Chicago, told the Associated Traffic Clubs of America both trucking and rail industries have "a real need for each other, despite their apparent prosperity."

Foiled Yeggs Lose 7 Cents In Deal

HELPER, Kan. (P)—Hard-working burglars failed to break into the vault of the Helper State Bank—apparently losing seven cents in the effort.

The thieves broke into the bank during the night, finally knocked the combination off the vault but didn't get in. Bank officials who had to call a safe expert to open the vault yesterday said nothing was missing.

Sheriff Ernie Stevens found seven pennies in front of the vault door and figured they fell out of the burglars' pockets.

Ladies Days End For the Season

Team Golf Tourney Marks Last Program

A team made up of Mrs. Wayne Shobe 50, Mrs. Robert Link 62, Mrs. Ed Vollette 63 and Mrs. William Wead 51 won the team event that marked the golf of the weekly ladies day at the Country Club Wednesday with a total score of 226.

In second place was the team of Mrs. William Junk 56, Mrs. J. E. Dabe 52, Mrs. Marvin Roszmann 55, Mrs. Everett Waddell 67 with a total of 230.

Finishing third with a total of 235 was the team of Mrs. Bill McLean 52, Mrs. Ralph Bray 51, Mrs. Elmer Reed 62 and Mrs. Mac Wilson 70.

In fourth place with 238 were Mrs. Charles Buxton 49, bye score 62, Mrs. Hugh Zimmerman 63 and Mrs. Robert Green 64.

Fifth with 243 were Mrs. H. F. Schlu 54, Mrs. James Martin 58, Mrs. Roger Littleton 63 and Mrs. Robert Lisk 68.

The blind bogey was taken by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Junk. Mrs. Bray and Mrs. Link tied for putting honors with 14 each.

THIS MARKED the end of the regular weekly ladies days which have been held every Wednesday all summer. But the girls voted unanimously to start play again next May and continue their meetings every week until October.

Tony Capuana, the club pro who has been the guiding hand for many of the unusual activities, said "this has been a wonderful year for the girls. There has been a lot of interest and enthusiasm and the scores have shown a steady improvement."

While golf has been the most common meeting ground of the two score of women, the ladies days have had their social aspects, too. After the morning on the fairways, the girls gather in the club house for luncheon and afternoon of visiting and bridge.

Cleanup Ordered

COLUMBUS (P)—Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner yesterday ordered an immediate cleanup of the city's rooming houses. He said arrests would be made if "filthy" rental properties are not repaired.

A jack rabbit can get up to 40 miles per hour over a short distance.

1953's Top Priced Yearlings Do OK In This Year's Races

COLUMBUS—The old saw which says that high-priced horses never do any good at the races is being disproved this year in harness racing. American Way and Butch Hanover, the two highest priced yearlings of 1953 are doing alright on the Grand Circuit this season.

American Way, who topped the list at $35,000 last October, is the fastest two-year-old pacer of the year with a record of 2:01.4 for the mile distance. Butch Hanover, the number two yearling at $25,000 and the tops among trotters, is the joint holder of the season's record for juvenile trotters with a mark of 2:03.4.

Actually, Butch Hanover has done a little better than American Way since Butch already has won two major stakes while American Way has been blanked in the stake column although three times a heat winner.

Butch Hanover, owned by Sol Camp of Shafter, Calif., and trained by Joe O'Brien, won the $10,387 American National Stake at Sedalia, Mo. (the first start of his career) and the $23,589 Castleton Farm Stake at Du Quoin, Ill.

In addition, he was a heat winner in the $28,041 Horseman Stake at Indianapolis and in the $14,986 Reading Fair Futurity at Reading, Pa. Those four starts are the only ones he has made.

American Way, owned by the Allwood Stable of Far Hills, N. J., won a heat in the $24,279 McMahon Memorial in 2:01.4 at Du Quoin, won a heat in the $29,444 Fox Stake at Indianapolis, and two heats for driver Joe Lighthill, but not the race, in the $10,000 Ohio Standardbred Futurity at Delaware.

Neither American Way nor Butch Hanover has quite earned out his purchase price to date, but with rich races still on tap at the Lexington Trots and at other scattered points after that, both probably will do so before the curtain rings down.

Roy Mack Out To Rake Up $750,000

NEW YORK (P)—Roy Mack today embarked on a final, desperate two-week search for $750,000 in cash to gain control of the Philadelphia Athletics.

It was learned that Roy has given the American League written assurance he will listen to outside offers to buy the club which his father, Connie, founded in 1901 if he can't raise the money.

Roy refused comment on his chances. So did his brother, Earle, who has been in favor of selling right along. Roy would use the money to buy out Earle and his father.

Roy Mack gained his two weeks of grace at a seven hour session of American League owners here yesterday in the same hotel room in which the league voted exactly a year ago to move the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore.

The owners listened to two detailed plans to buy out the Macks. One came from Arnold Johnson, a Chicago real estate man who wants to move the club to Kansas City. The other came from Thomas Richardson, president of the Eastern League and a director of the Athletics.

Each of the offers was for $3,375,000. This would cover Connie Mack Stadium in addition to the franchise. The Mack family would have to pay its debts, estimated at more than 1 million dollars, out of the proceeds.

Richardson's offer, which he said came from a small group of monied friends, would keep the A's in Philadelphia in 1955. But, he said, he needed assurance the league would allow a move "to any one of six or seven cities if we decide Philadelphia definitely no longer is a two-team town."

Dehydrated breadfruit can be stored for a long period and is reducing the cost of living on the island of Jamaica.

What a flavor! What a woman!

"Honestly, the freshest, sweetest spread I can buy... margarine or anything else. My family loves it, Mrs. Filbert!"

"It's my own margarine recipe... and I put flavor first. Just see how your family goes for it." Mrs. M. V. Filbert, Pres.

So fresh. So fresh. So sweet. Did any spread ever taste this good to you before? "It's because I'm so persnickety about what goes into it," says Mrs. Filbert. So tender it spreads ice-cold in one satiny sweep. So delicious folks say they like it better than any other spread—margarine or anything else! Eat some Mrs. Filbert's today.

Movable Gear For Kitchens Now In Demand

Housewife Finding Greater Need for Portable Appliances

By SAW DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — There's a movable version of almost every appliance in the kitchen today but the kitchen sink. And even in that line there's an automatic dishwasher you can wheel around the house.

America's changing living habits have brought this about since the war—mostly in the last year or two. Stoves, ovens, electric saucepans, dishwashers have joined the electric coffee pot and toaster as items that can be used in dining room or livingroom or out on lawn, or taken in the family car to the summer camp.

Smaller houses call for smaller, and portable, kitchen appliances. And many a housewife likes to do her kitchenwork in the living room, watching the soap operas on TV, or out in the patio with the family in the evening.

Sales have been booming. Take just one field, infrared broilers. Sales didn't start in volume until 1950. In 1951 the industry sold nine million dollars worth, the next year 13 million dollars, and last year 22 million. Some industry spokesmen are talking confidently of 100 million dollars of retail sales or better this year.

The broilers or ovens are now found in about 10 per cent of all electrically wired homes. A dozen companies are in the field, and competition is bitter.

Roto-Broil Corp. of America estimates sales of its broilers should top 35 million dollars this year at retail prices.

Peerless Electric Inc. says sales of its broil-quick, at wholesale, rose from less than one million dollars in 1950 to 10 million last year. And in the first six months of this year, its sales were more than double those for the same period last year.

When sales showed signs of slowing down late this spring, companies brought out new accessories.

ries. Roto-Broil added a tray for baking. Peerless added a baking tray, a corn popper and a frying device.

Restyling has been a major trend in the infrared cooking field this year. The broilers were made socially acceptable in the living room or at garden parties.

Taking a look at the new trends in home living, Westinghouse restyled its electric roaster - oven this summer, adding an infrared broiler grill, a look-in glass panel, and even makes a sort of cart for wheeling it about.

For the housewife who likes to cook elsewhere than in the kitchen, Westinghouse is also touting a bowl-shaped cooker with built in heating unit that deep fries, boils soup, pops corn or bakes apples wherever you plug it in.

Nesco Inc. has brought out a four-quart electric saucepan, with built-in heating unit, so that the housewife can cook, where she will, anything that normally would be done on top of a burner in the kitchen stove.

General Electric, eyeing the housewife's smaller homes and changing habits, has an automatic mobile dishwasher that can be rolled around the rooms like a serving cart to pick up dirty dishes, or can be used to store clean ones. A hose connection fits the hot water faucet in the sink.

These are only a few of the portable appliances designed to fit into the new American outdoor and on-the-move living.

Ohioan Cites Philosophy Of Crime Bosses

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Organized crime and communism thrive in countries that have parted company with moral education, the Ohio liquor enforcement chief said here yesterday.

The speaker was Edward J. Allen, chief of the enforcement division of the Department of Liquor Control in Columbus. He addressed the 61st annual convention of the International Assn. of Chiefs of Police.

Allen, former Youngstown police chief and FBI agent, said organized crime cannot be legislated out of existence because it is an ingrained mode of thought, an idea. Like communism, Allen said organized crime advocates the abolition of moral discipline.

Infiltration into society, particularly politics, is now the secret weapon of organized crime, Allen stated. He said organized crime has increased in this country by leaps and bounds since the turn of the century.

He said the common creed of all crime includes refusal to recognize the legal power, getting one's rights by one's own hands and the power of silence.

Bosses of organized crime, Allen continued, claim it is foolish to keep trying to eliminate crime; it is better to control it. He said influential gangsters believe their ability to control crime is far superior to law agencies.

Allen cited the testimony before the Senate Crime Investigating Committee of 1951.

Allen said the owner of a New York race track, warned that he would lose his license unless he rid the track of racketeers, was unable to clear the track until he appealed to "the notorious racketeer," Frank Costello.

Testimony showed that two days after the owner appealed to Costello the track was cleared of racketeers.

Guesspert Sees Another Win For Irish '11'

Predictions Running .836 Correct; Ohio State Due for Defeat

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—The World Series game won't be the only athletic event Saturday afternoon. There will be a hundred or more college football games. But if you are determined to watch the series, here are the football winners in advance.

Last week's predictions had 39 winners and 11 losers. That brought the season's figures to 66 winners, 15 losers for an .836 average.

The forecasts:
Notre Dame over Purdue: The Irish enthusiasm of last week to carry over for this tussle with Purdue's rugged sophomores.

Iowa over Montana: The Hawkeyes get a rest after their victory over Michigan State.

UCLA over Maryland: Last year's No. 1 team travels to the coast Friday night to meet the team which could develop into 1954's strongest.

Michigan State over Wisconsin: Michigan State doesn't make a habit of losing two in a row, even if the opponent boasts an Alan Ameche.

Duke over Tennessee: When in doubt, always pick the home team.

Mississippi over Villanova: A chain store production with Villanova winding up in the vegetable department.

Southern California over Northwestern: Ten Arett too much for the Big Ten team.

Penn State over Syracuse: Penn State's line to keep Bill Wetzel in check.

Baylor over Miami: A Friday night encounter.

Texas over Washington State: The West Coast aggregation gets punished for what Notre Dame did to Texas last weekend.

California over Ohio State: Paul Larsen's pin-point passing to be decisive.

Illinois over Stanford: The TV viewers will find it difficult to keep J. C. Caroline in focus, so will the Stanford defenders.

The others, without comment:

Friday night

Furman over Presbyterian,

Wichita over Drake.

Saturday

East: Minnesota over Pittsburgh, Fordham over Rutgers, Boston College over Temple, Yale over Brown, Princeton over Columbia, Boston University over Connecticut, Navy over Dartmouth, Colgate over Holy Cross, Harvard over Massachusetts, Penn over William & Mary.

South: Alabama over Vanderbilt, Davidson over the Citadel, Clemson over Virginia Tech, Auburn over Florida, Georgia over Texas A & M, Kentucky over LSU, Mississippi State over Arkansas State, Richmond over Virginia Military, South Carolina over West Virginia, North Carolina over Tulane, Virginia over George Washington, North Carolina State over Wake Forest.

Midwest: Michigan over Army, Nebraska over Iowa State, Cincinnati over Tulsa, Indiana over College of Pacific, Colorado over Kansas, Kansas State over Missouri, Marquette over Miami of Ohio.

Southwest: Rice over Cornell, Georgia Tech over Southern Methodist, Texas Christian over Arkansas, Texas Tech over Oklahoma A & M.

Far West: Arizona State over Texas Western, Colorado A & M over Brigham Young, Wyoming over Denver, Oregon over Utah, Washington over Oregon State, New Mexico over Utah State.

Fremont Grid Coach Raps State Ratings

FREMONT (AP)—Mal Mackey, football coach at Fremont High School, took a crack at grid polls today, and invited Ohio's top teams to schedule his Little Giants.

Mackey, whose sophomore-laden club edged strong Lorain, 14-13, last Friday with a second half comeback, took dim view of Associated Press ratings this week. He especially challenged the No. 1 rating of Massillon above his own team. Fremont was rated eighth.

"These polls don't make sense," Mackey said. "Massillon hasn't played anyone yet and still they're in first place, while Warren wins two tough games and beats Canton McKinley and is in second place."

"And Mansfield — that's just a name that the writers must use for without thinking. Some of those clubs like to pick on a bunch of cripples, then go around like real tough guys."

Mackey continued:
"Why, this Lorain team we played last week could run over some of the teams in the top ten. Too many teams are picked on reputation. They play a few tough games, sure, but look at the schedules of Massillon, Mansfield and some of the others and you will see several soft spots. It's too bad we don't get a crack at them more often. I'd be glad to play them any time it can be arranged."

Mackey's type of criticism has been voiced before by other coaches and by Ohio sports writers. It was pointed out that generally the AP ratings are the composite view of less than two dozen newspaper and radio reporters in the state.

Borton Expects To Play For OSU

COLUMBUS (AP)—Quarterback John Borton may be in the Ohio State football lineup against California here Saturday, says Coach Woody Hayes. Borton, kept out of the pileups with an injured finger, worked out this week.

River Barge Fire Loss Said $35,000

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Ashland Oil & Refining Co. officials have estimated at $35,000 the loss from the Ohio River barge fire here Tuesday. Three barges containing gasoline and diesel oil were damaged. John Fox, transportation manager for the company, said the fire could have started from static electricity, sparks or friction. The fires on the barges containing gasoline were quickly extinguished, but the one carrying diesel oil burned nearly four hours.

Red Czechs Voted Out Of World Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The World Bank and International Monetary Fund reached the final deliberations of their annual meeting today after giving notice of expulsion to Czechoslovakia, a founding member.

Governors of the 57-nation fund listened silently yesterday while the Czech's chief delegate, Julius Hajek, pleaded "national security" as the reason for his country's failure to supply required information on its foreign trade.

When the vote came, on a U.S. resolution to eject the fund's only Iron Curtain country on Dec. 31 unless by then it makes good on obligations required of all members, only India voted with Czechoslovakia. The vote was 42 for expulsion, 2 against, 9 abstentions and 4 absences.

In two long speeches, Hajek blamed the United States for the ouster move but made it clear Czechoslovakia would accept expulsion rather than divulge to Western powers the secrets of its commerce with Russia and other countries.

The World Bank already had suspended Czechoslovakia. That suspension also becomes an expulsion Dec. 31 unless the Czechs make up defaulted payments on their capital subscription to the international lending agency.

U.S. Atomic Plan Listed On Agenda

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U.N. sources indicated today the United States has succeeded in getting its atom-for-peace plan No. 3, billing in the General Assembly's main political committee, slated to begin work next week.

Present findings indicate, these sources said, that the U. S. plan will be taken up directly after two related issues, disarmament and collective security.

All three items are linked indirectly with President Eisenhower's plea for an "avenue of peace" before the Assembly last December, when he first presented his plan for a global atomic pool.

Arizona 76 Ranch Owner Dead At 74

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The funeral of Mrs. Claire Noelke Webb, widow of W. T. Webb, prominent Arizona Democrat and operator of the famed 76 Ranch near Bonita, Ariz., will be held tomorrow.

Mrs. Webb died in a Tucson hospital Monday after a long illness. She was 74.

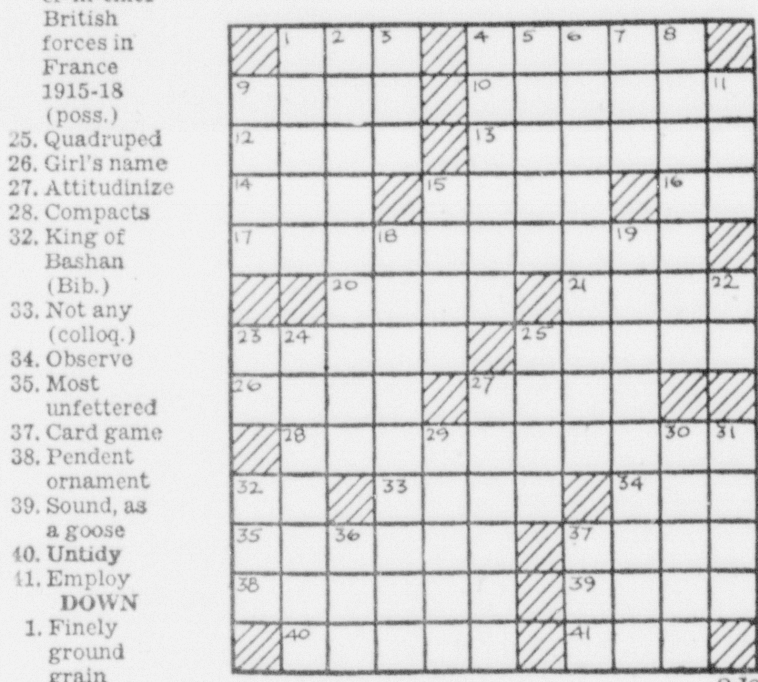

After the death of her husband in 1939 she took over control and operation of his extensive cattle business. She built up the 76 Ranch, about 50 miles northeast of Tucson, until it became one of the best known cattle and dude ranches in the state.

A circus thriller, "Ring of Fear," in Cinemascope and Warner Color is to open Sunday at the Fayette Theater here. In the leading roles are Clyde Beatty, the Bainbridge boy who made good taming wild animals, and Mickey Spillane (in set), the writer making his movie acting debut. The entire Clyde Beatty circus is featured in the picture.

Worldwide Communion To Be Observed Sunday

Next Sunday is known throughout most of Protestant Christendom as "Worldwide Communion Sunday."

Sometime within the 24 hours of that day, as the clock changes from time zone to time zone, 25 to 30 denominations will unite in fellowship around the Lord's Table, partaking together of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Millions of people around the world will observe this ritual.

Although these faithful will see only their immediate fellow Christians partaking of the sacrament in their own churches, small or large as they may be, they will get inspiration from the knowledge of the vast fellowship around the world who are gathered at the Lord's Table in their respective places of worship.

Rev. Don McMillen, pastor of the First Christian Church and president of the Fayette County Ministerial Association, said the Worldwide Communion would be observed in nearly all of the churches of the county Sunday, but that the form of the observance would vary in the different churches.

He expressed the belief that while the ministers would make reference to the event in their sermons and special services, these references would be comparatively brief because more time would be devoted to the Communion itself.

IN DISCUSSING the coming of Worldwide Communion, Dr. Paul H. Elliott, pastor of McNair Presbyterian Church here and the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church said that about four years ago, a Belgian writer, drawing on his own nation's experiences, to emphasize the common meeting ground of humanity in religion, put it this way:

"Two different peoples live in little Belgium: the Flemish and the Walloons. They speak two different languages: Flemish and French. Yet there is only one people, the Belgians. They are united by the sacred bonds of common hardships, of common hopes and purposes. The same thing can be said of others. What a lesson for our Protestant Christianity."

As a Belgian poet has said of Belgium,

"Flemish, Walloon
These are only surnames;
Belgium is our family name,
Yes, our family name."

Dr. Elliott said of Protestant Christianity:

"Baptist, Presbyterians, Methodists
These are only surnames,
Christians is our family name,
Yes, our family name!"

COLUMBUS (AP)—Charges of unfair labor practices have been filed against Westinghouse Electric Corp. here. Union officials claim the company tried to interfere with the right to strike by "intimidation or coercion."

The $45 million plant has been idled 16 days by a strike of 2,000 workers.
